Apartments are fully air conditioned and have ensuite facilities, as well as a small kitchenette (2 electric rings and a fridge) – ideal for basic food preparation at lunchtime. The variety of apartments can cater for 2 – 4 guests. Breakfast is available at a small additional cost. All linen is included, with the exception of beach towels.

The nearby beach is accessed to the side of the hotel by a narrow road. The promenade extends for miles each way.

The bustling hub of medieval Trogir is approx 30 minutes walk away, where there are plenty of small restaurants, bars and cafes. Don't miss the daily market too where fresh fish, fruit and vegetables are plentifully available. If the walk is too much, there is a reliable and cheap bus service. Or take the water taxi service from the nearby jetty (about 40p pp each way). In Trogir there is a large Konzum supermarket.

The hotel has a lovely pool area with sunloungers, has a small bar and a hot tub. And accommodation is offered on a self catering basis. Ample parking for those arriving by car.

Whilst here, don't miss out on a trip to nearby Primosten, as well as Krka National Park which is approximately half an hour away by car. The hotel can assist with booking an excursion for those arriving without a car. Diocletian's Palace, in Split is also a 'must do'
